PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Currently, David Hughes begins his 17th year in education and seventh year at St. Agatha. Hughes has his Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio Dominican University and holds an Elementary 1-8 Teaching Certification. He teaches Science, Health, Religion and STEM. Through cooperative learning groups, demonstrations, experiments and inquiry to engage all students, Mr. Hughes wants students to take ownership of their learning. He wants to encourage independent thinking, questioning and exploring to engage students in meaningful work that will allow them to succeed in the classroom. Hughes serves as Chairperson for St. Agatha's School Accreditation Committee, Science Fair Coordinator and 7th Grade Camp Coordinator. For enjoyment, he enjoys hiking, canoeing, kayaking, gardening, and cooking. Residing in Clintonville, Hughes, his wife, Shelly, and their two daughters enjoy visits from their son and daughter-in-law.
