

NICK MOORE

MIDDLE SCHOOL TEACHER

Saint Agatha School

nmoore@cducation.org

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

A graduate of Capital University and Ashland University, Nick Moore starts his 17th year at St. Agatha School. With his teaching certification in social studies, Mr. Moore is also the recipient of the Ohio History Day Teacher Travel Award. At St. Agatha, Nick teaches Social Studies and Religion. Nick wants his students to focus on learning to learn in middle school. With this skill, he wants to enable kids to acquire the strategies to studying that will prepare the student for high school and beyond. At St. Agatha, Mr. Moore works as the technology coordinator, serves on the Principal's Advisory Committee and also coordinates History Day, the Geography Bee and the 8th graders' annual trip to Washington, D.C. For enjoyment, he likes to cook, listen to music and watch old movies. Mr. Moore and his wife, Jen, reside in Galloway.

EXPERIENCE

17 Years in Education

LICENSURE/CERTIFICATION

Secondary Education Social Studies 7-12

Religion Certification

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts, Capital University

Master's of Arts in Ed Tech, Ashland University

