

FRIDAY FANFARE

August 31, 2018

Dear Trinity Families,

Our families have needed a lot of prayers in these opening days of school. It is one of the blessings of being in a Catholic school--that we can pray. Prayer is communicating with God. We talk and share with God (just like we would with a best friend) what is happening in our lives--the happy and the sad. Through prayer, we can connect with God anytime, anywhere. We can pray formal prayers that we have learned, or we can pray in our own words. We can pray out loud with others or alone in the quiet of our hearts. God isn't picky; he just wants to hear from us!

With God's blessings,
Kimber Moehrman, Principal
