PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Starting her 18th year at St. Agatha School, Veronica Stemen holds a teaching licensure in Elementary Education Grades 1-8. A graduate of Bowling Green University and Ashland University, Stemen is an Upper Arlington Golden Apple Award winner in education. As an educator, Veronica wants to continue to guide her students' learning experiences and allow them to explore their opportunities to create their own learning, while holding them accountable as they travel along their own paths. In her spare time, Mrs. Stemen serves on the St. Agatha School Wellness Committee along with her women's service group, Soroptimist. She also enjoys baking and lots of reading, especially in the summer months. Both of Veronica's children, Luke and Troy, graduated from St Agatha School. She and her sons reside in Hilliard.
